

MISSION STATEMENT

The College of Business and Economics provides high quality education that prepares students from diverse backgrounds for leadership in today's complex, global economy. Our graduates are effective communicators and ethical decision makers who are proficient in the theory and practice of business. Our faculty members are excellent teachers who maintain academic and professional currency. Our college actively partners with business, government, and community organizations to enhance its teaching and research mission.

