

VISION

The College of Business and Economics will offer the program of choice for the fully employed student in the greater Los Angeles area who seeks an evening, part-time, self-paced, Masters of Business Administration degree and for employers who demand high quality graduates.

The MBA will be recognized as one of the area's highest quality degree programs designed for working adults.

